

Peter Lawther

Chief Technology Officer

Peter has worked in the IT industry for 20 years in technical leadership roles and is currently the Chief Technology Officer for Fujitsu Oceania.

Peter is a passionate technologist and enterprise architect who has worked with global and regional customers to define future state architectures and digital transformation strategies.

Peter has worked extensively across sales and delivery and has secured and delivered global contracts ranging from $50 million to in excess of 1$ billion US dollars.

More recently as Chief Technology Officer for Fujitsu Peter has provided leadership in the establishment and growth of Fujitsu's Digital Business capabilities.

Having led the development of the strategic direction for the Digital Business, he still actively participates in the Fujitsu incubation program and customer co-creation activities. Peter is a member of the Fujitsu Global CTO community and supports the transfer and implementation of Fujitsu IP into the Oceania Region.

Peter has always had a special interest in technological futures and more recently Human Centric Innovation, where the connection between the physical and digital worlds are becoming more obscured as our trust in technology changes.
